POLAND CHURCH CHARTS EASTER SUNDAY SERVICE

Poland—Easter services in the Poland Baptist Church will include special musical numbers by the choir and soloists.

The morning service will begin with two trumpet duets played at 10:10 a. m. from the tower of the church by Rolland Ellis and Carlton Phillips. The trumpet selections are "The Holy City" by Stephen Adams, and "Christ the Lord Is Risen Today."

The prelude, "The Risen Christ," by Hosmer, played on the organ, will be followed by "Golden Harps Are Sounding" with trumpet obligato. The choir will sing "He Is Risen" by Heyser and organ offertory is "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth," by Handel. A choral response, "Easter Hallelujah," by Lorenz, will follow the Scripture lesson and Mrs. Leon Ellis, soprano soloist, will sing.

The Rev. Homer H. Shafer will preach an Easter message entitled: "The Might of Right" and will extend the right hand of fellowship to those entering the membership of the church. The service will conclude with the postlude "Unfold Ye Portals," by Gounod.
