Labor Day Thoughts

Why is Labor Day not a day of labor? To give men and women of labor a Day

How can Labor Day be made a day of profit and universal helpfulness? By thinking how all of us Americans can co-operate for the good of all of us and of our country.

One way to do this is for every American who is not a bank depositor to become one at once. Your money in the bank will help you and the entire country.

A Practical Creed

An eminent writer once said:

The place to be happy is here. The TIME to be happy is now. The WAY to be happy is to make others happy about you.

. A practical variation of this same creed could be expressed as follows:

The PLACE to be thrifty is here. The TIME to be thrifty is now. The WAY to be thrifty is to deny ourself extravagances that you may enjoy happiness and comforts and independ-

You Can Make Good

Whether you travel the storied coasts of the world-and set your story down in volumes of ten; or follow the pursuits of business over the proverbial three score and ten-it is the unique, the new thing.

If there is something you can do that is not being done; or if you help others better than they are now being helped, you can make good.
