Lyndon Galbraith

Boonville — Lyndon Galbraith, 68, died May 28, 1952 in Memorial Hospital, Utica, after a three-month illness.

He was born in Granthamville, on Mar. 3, 1884, son of John and Bertha Slater Galbraith and married Miss Panny Emma Marry on Sept. 1, 1910, at Walkill. The Rev. D. G. Berway performed the ceremony.

Mr. Galbraith was employed in the Borden milk plant at Walkill for several years, and later at the Dairyman's League plant at Fort Plain and at milk plants at Remond, Massena and Lawville before coming to Boonville in 1929, where he was first employed at the Dairyman's League plant. Prior to his illness he was employed by the Sheffield Farms Corp.

He attended the Methodist Church, and was member of Boonville Lodge 165, F&AM, and of the Odd Fellows Lodge at Walden. He was well known as a horseman.

He leaves his wife; three daughters, Mrs. Bruce Klosser, Boonville; Mrs. Richard Richards, Remond; and Mrs. Clark Phelps, Remond; two sons, Wilson W. of Ononda and Lincoln B. of Boonville; four grandchildren; two brothers, Hugh of Walkill and William of New York; a nephew and several cousins.

The funeral will be at 2 Saturday from the Trainor Funeral Home, the Rev. Robert U. Holmes, pastor of the First Methodist Church, officiating.
