

UP PARIS HILL WAY

PARIS

Paris, March 10.—J. E. Head attended the funeral of Fred Bott at Clinton, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Woodin, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jones and daughter, Madlyn, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Smith and Lloyd and Alma Smith, Albert Townsend and Louis Davies, Howard Davies and Ellen Wickes and Ralph Davies spent Monday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Roberts.

Mrs. R. M. Roberts spent the week-end with her son, Earl Roberts at Paris Station.

John Bailey, we are sorry to say, is not any better at this writing.

John Wicks has returned from California and is spending some time with his brother, Frank Wicks.

Donald Henkle has returned from Detroit, Mich., where he has been attending the automobile school there.

There were no services in the Congregational Church last Sunday owing to the bad weather.

Julia, Katherine and Martin Dowd spent the week-end at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Dowd.

Mrs. William Burritt was home over Sunday.

Paris Hill has its share of "The Beautiful" this winter. Great banks are piled high along the roads and many, "Thank Maans" are to be found in the roads. But we comfort ourselves with the thought that the sun is getting higher in the heavens and its better for March to come in like a lion and go out like a lamb, for whichever way the weather is, we have to take it as it comes.

As Reilly says, "If the Lord sorts out the weather and sends rain, why rain's my choice."

PARIS STATION

Paris Station, March 10.—Monday evening March eighth, a crowd of friends paid Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beebe a surprise visit, the occasion being their twentieth wedding anniversary. Cards and games were enjoyed.

Mrs. David Jones read an original poem written by Ruth Jones, presenting the bride and groom with a sherry set.

The guests departed hoping to have the opportunity for another surprise visit in twenty years.

Thomas Jones and James Martin were in Utica Wednesday on business.

The regular meeting of Paris Grange was held Wednesday evening. Although a stormy evening, a goodly number were present.

Lecturer's Hour consisted of current events by Hazel Woodin. A report of State Grange by Linda Smith.

Talk, "What I Would do If I Were a Man" by Ella Henkle. Talk, "What I Would do If I Were a Woman" by Merritt Woodin.

Refreshment committee were: Mr. and Mrs. Earl Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Henkle. Next meeting will be held March 17, after which the members will enjoy dancing.

Miss Ellen Wickes spent the week-end with her parents at Paris Hill.

P. P. Torney and son, Francis, were in Utica Saturday.

Mrs. R. M. Roberts of Paris Hill spent the week-end at the home of her son, Earl Roberts.

Edward Smith of Clayville spent Sunday at his home here.

John Hughes of Utica spent Sunday with his aunt, Mrs. Richard Chubbuck.

Miss Dorothy Hoffman and Walter Bray were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller Sunday.

CASSVILLE

Cassville, March 10.—Kenneth Arnold of Colgate University spent the week-end with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. G. N. Arnold.

The Ladies Missionary and Aid Society met Wednesday with Mrs. W. S. Goodwin.

Miss Athol Jones of Utica spent Saturday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Jones.

Mrs. William Roberts has returned home after spending a few days with her brother, J. J. Davies.

Mrs. Eva Paddock and family of Saugquoit were Sunday guests of her mother, Mrs. Albert Henry.

Mr. Philbrick of Utica will work for Mrs. J. M. Riskey the coming year.

Miss Daisy Carpenter of Hubbardsville spent the week-end with Miss Mary Wisnoak.

Mr. G. N. Arnold was called to Binghamton Tuesday on account of the illness of her mother.

W. S. Goodwin spent Tuesday in Waterville with his sister, Mrs. Gomer Jones.

CHUCKERY

Chuckery, March 10.—A number of our towns people attended the funeral of Fred Bott on Sunday afternoon at Clinton. The Bott family lived here a few years ago and have many friends who extend sincere sympathy to the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ebert spent Saturday evening at the Kurasek home.

Joseph Murphy is spending sometime in Rome the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lambert.

The first week of March has surely been typical of March weather and it is hoped that there will be an indication of spring soon and the tedious winter will end.

George Marsh, Jr., is on the sick list. His young friends hope he soon recovers.

W. G. Comstock attended the milk meeting held in Utica last week Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Marsh were dinner guests at the Arthur Marsh home last week Saturday.

Mr. John Wesseldine and daughter, and a friend who have spent a week at James Marsh's returned to their homes in Rome last week Saturday.

The Radio epidemic of a short time ago, has suffered a relapse, there are three new cases, Williams brothers have each a new radio and are enjoying them.

Arthur Barnmaster of Utica was a Sunday guest of his parents.

Mrs. Marshall Barker was a caller one day last week at the home of Mrs. Fred Bott.

SAUQUOIT

Saugquoit, March 10.—The every member canvass of the Presbyterian Church will be held Sunday afternoon, March 14. The canvassers are asked to meet at the church at 2 p. m., sharp. From there they will go in pairs to visit all the homes of those connected with the church.

The Thimble Club of Maple Valley Chapter No. 393 will meet with Julia A. Allen, Saugquoit, Wednesday, March 17th. A covered dish luncheon will be served at 12:30.

School Night will be observed in the Presbyterian Church Sunday night, March 14. The Board of Education, faculty and pupils of Saugquoit school will be guests honored at that service.

Superintendent of Schools H. C. Beck will be the speaker of the evening. His subject being "Our Public School System, Its Development and Function."

All members of the Saugquoit Volunteer Fire Company, are requested to attend a special meeting to be held at Morgan and Hawley's store, Thursday evening, March 11, when action will be taken on providing a building to replace the one recently destroyed by fire, and also a suitable fire engine equipment to protect the village in the future.

Their small fire engine proving very inadequate, in Saturday night's fire, when if it were not for the excellent and timely help given by surrounding towns, the entire village would have been wiped out. Firemen's Hall was only partially covered by insurance and the small sum of $1,600 will be all the money available for a new start, and the $300 received annually from the town does not provide suitable fire protection for the village of Saugquoit.

A Community Father and Son banquet will be held at the M. E. Church, Wednesday evening, March 10, at 7 p. m. Rev. T. T. Butler of Trinity Episcopal Church, Utica will be the speaker of the evening. All boys of the community are invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Gallup who have been spending the winter in Florida returned by auto last week.

I. L. Morgan who was one of the worst sufferers from the fire of Saturday night is again open for business at the Raymond Lewis building across the street. Carpenters and friends worked all day Sunday putting up shelves and counters, and all day Monday truck loads of groceries and merchandise were brought in with the result that Monday evening found Mr. Morgan again ready to serve the public.

Miss Sadie Sherman, who has been ill has gone to Utica to be with her sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn O'Hara, will occupy rooms at the home of James Quinn.

Harold Clemmens is confined to his home by illness.

Word has been received here that a daughter who has been named Betty Anna was born to Mr. and Mrs. Leicesters Green at a Syracuse Hospital, March 3. Mrs. Green was formerly Miss Hazel Evans.

Mrs. A. W. Griffiths spent the week-end with her aunts, Misses Anna and Catherine McCabe of Dudley avenue, Utica.

Mrs. Bernard Devins of Utica spent the week-end with her cousin Mr. and Mrs. James Quinn.

Mr. and Mrs. John Miller have returned from a few weeks stay in Florida.

The funeral of Mrs. Margaret Weigel was held from her late home Saturday morning at 9:30 and from St. Patrick's Church, Clayville, at 10 o'clock. Interment was made in St. Mary's cemetery, Clayville. Relatives from out of town who attended the funeral were: Mrs. Catherine Marcy and Mrs. E. Inecker, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hess, George Hess, Anthony, Peter and Albert Inecker, Anthony Krager and William Krager of Boonville; Mr. and Mrs. Leo Krager of Whitesboro; Miss Rose Hess and Albert Zimmer of Utica; John Lashan, Herkimer; Mr. and Mrs. Loid Bell, Ilion; Stella and Orlando Weigel, Norwich. The bearers were: Albert Zimmer, Anthony Inecker, Anthony Krager, Lawrence Weigel, Orlando Weigel and Sylvester Kaha.
