Clinton Methodist Church

Rev. Kenneth Halstead
Thursday evening of this week, December 3, the Adult Fellowship will hold their regular monthly meeting in the church parlors. The supper meeting will begin at 6 p.m., and all who plan to attend should bring a covered dish, buttered rolls, and table service for the family. The dessert and beverage will be provided by the December committee. Our program this month will have a Christmas emphasis which will move us right into the spirit of the season. Everyone is invited to attend.

The church choir will rehearse on Friday evening, Junior choir at 6:30 and Chancel choir at 7:30. There will be additional rehearsal for our special Christmas music on Sunday afternoon from 3 until 5. Even if you do not sing with the choir regularly we invite you to join us for the special music of this season of hope and gladness.
As the first of his Advent messages Rev. Halstead will deliver this week a sermon entitled, "A Theology of Decision." Worship services are held at 8:45 and 11 a.m., with church school at 9:45 and 11 a.m. There is a varied program here to fit the needs of every member of your family. We invite you to come and share in worship and study with us.
The official board of our church will hold its final meeting for the year 1959 on the evening of Tuesday, December 8, at 8 o'clock. Many matters of importance to us all will be considered at that time. All board members should make an earnest effort to attend.
Members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service will have a general meeting in the church on the evening of Wednesday, December 9. All the girls of the Junior and Senior Youth Fellowships will attend this meeting as the guests of the society and a special program is planned for their benefit. This will be a supper meeting. Everyone should bring a covered dish.
The Membership and Evangelism commission will hold an urgent meeting on Thursday evening, December 10. The meeting is called for 7:30 and it is extremely important that every commission member be present.
The lay leader, pastor and officials of the Clinton Methodist church wish to take this opportunity of reminding every member and constituent of our fellowship of the urgency and importance of the special offering we will receive this week for the benefit and relief of our retired ministers. The literature and envelopes you received in the mail this week tell the story. Will you now make a generous response and share some of your Christmas giving with those who have spent their lives "giving of themselves."

The Women's Christian Association Executive Committee will meet Saturday, December 5, at 1:30 p.m., in the church lounge. All present officers should attend.
On Sunday, December 6, the Youth Budget Canvass will be conducted during the afternoon. The purpose: to talk with children and young people about our church and their place in it, and to receive their pledges for 1960.

Services Sunday at 10:45 a.m. and Wednesday at 8 p.m.

The beauty of holiness will be a theme dealt with in Christian Science services Sunday in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "God the Only Cause and Creator."

Scriptural selections will include this verse (1 Chronicles 16:29): "Give unto the Lord the glory due unto his name; bring an offering, and come before him: worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness."

Correlative passages to be read from Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy include (246: 13, 23) "As the physical and material, the transient sense of beauty fades, the radiance of Spirit should dawn upon the enraptured sense with bright and imperishable glories. . . . Man, governed by immortal Mind, is at ways beautiful and grand. Each succeeding year unfolds wisdom, beauty, and holiness."
