

FAMOUS PIANIST TO GIVE RECITAL AT COLLEGE TUESDAY, JANUARY 7

Jose Iturbi Favors Hamilton College On Trip From New York To Chicago

Professor Berrian R. Shute, president of the Hamilton Musical Art Society, announced Thursday that Jose Iturbi, famous Spanish pianist, will appear in a recital at Hamilton College Chapel on Tuesday, January 7th. Mr. Iturbi is probably the most famous musician who has even performed at a Hamilton recital.

The Musical Art Society is especially fortunate to obtain this great artist who less than a fortnight ago made his Carnegie Hall debut in New York City. Mr. Iturbi will play in Clinton on his only stop-over between New York and Chicago. He is in this country on a tour originally made as a soloist with the Philharmonic-Symphony in Carnegie Hall. His appearance with this group was so successful that a special pianoforte concert was arranged. He was little known in this country until this season when he was brought here by some of America's leading orchestra leaders. His performance at Carnegie Hall caused a demonstration by the audience such as rarely occurs at any recital.

Jose Iturbi was born in Valencia, Spain, on November 23, 1895. At the age of 13, after having studied in the Conservatory of his native city, he won first prize in piano. After leaving Valencia, he went to Barcelona and continued his studies under the famous Joaquin Malas. Later he went to Paris where he worked at the Conservatory under Stubb, and graduated with first honors at the age of 17.

JOSE ITURBI

In 1910 he accepted the post of the head of the piano faculty of the Conservatory of Geneva, a position which was once held by Franz Liszt. During his four years at the Conservatory his concert activities had expanded so much that he was unable to devote his time to teaching.

During this past season, before sailing for South America, Mr. Iturbi toured all of Scandinavia, Switzerland, Spain, Portugal, England, France, Russia, Italy, Austria, Czechoslovakia and the French and Italian Riviera.

The concert will begin at 8:30. It is open to all members of the Musical Art Society without charge and to all others by ticket.

AGED RESIDENT DIES AT FRANKLIN SPRINGS

Mr. Lawrence Bogan, an aged, well known and highly respected citizen, passed away on Monday morning, December 30th at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Joseph Welch, who resides near the Reservoir Road. Mr. Bogan had been a very active, hard working man, and had been quite energetic for a man of his years, until recently.

Mr. Bogan was 81 years old last August. He was born in Ireland and came to this country when 7 years of age. For several years he resided in Waterville and later came to Clinton where he carried on farming. The family lived for some time on The Kennedy Farm on the Deansboro Road and later he purchased the farm on the Reservoir Road, now owned by Mrs. May Burdick. He was a member of St. Mary's Church. After he retired he purchased a home on Kellogg street and lived there until the death of his wife about four years ago. Surviving are four daughters, Mrs. Joseph Welch, at whose home he died, Mrs. Frank Donahue of Upper Post street, Mrs. Thomas Creedon of Kellogg street, Clinton, Mrs. B. J. Armstrong of Utica; one son, Joseph N. Bogan, of Milburn, and 13 grandchildren.

His funeral will be held on Thursday morning from the home of his daughter, Mrs. Welch, and at 10 o'clock in St. Mary's Church. The many friends of the family extend sincere sympathy.

REUNION HELD CHRISTMAS DAY

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ellinwood, Fountain street, was the scene of a family reunion on Christmas Day when members of the Roemer family were entertained. Twenty-seven persons, descendants of Rosa Pfeiffer and Conrad Roemer, were present and enjoyed a bountiful dinner. Presents were exchanged and a business meeting held. Plans were made for the summer gathering which will be held July 4 at the summer home of Dr. William B. Roemer at White Lake.

Those present at the Christmas Day reunion were Dr. and Mrs. William B. Roemer and daughters, Avis and Lois; Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Roemer and children, Leslie, Helen, Kenneth and Spencer, all of Utica; Mr. and Mrs. John Hammell and daughters, Alice and Marion, Sauquoit; Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Howard, Chadwicks; Mrs. Dora Grannis, Clinton; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bauer and daughter, Marion, Otens Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bauer, Chadwicks; Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Hoyt, New Hartford; and Miss Dorothy Ellinwood, who is engaged in teaching home economics at Almond, and who is spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ellinwood.

MOUNTAINS TO ME

Mine shall be the mountains.
You may have the sea;
Mine shall be the mountains
That rise in majesty.
Timberline and high trails
These are my delight,
Mine the alpine meadows,
The stern and snowy height;
Mine the lakes like jewels
Gleaming in the sun,
Mine the singing rivers
That through green forests run.
Pine and spruce and aspen
These are my good trees;
Boughs of fragrant balsam
Shall form my beds of ease.
Where blue gentians blossom
There my camp-site lies,
There my home and haven
Under sapphire skies.
Mine shall be the mountains,
You may have the sea
And all that does remain
Of earth, Mountains to me!

—Frances Higgins.

HINTS FOR MOTORISTS

Clean out your gasoline filter once in a while. The best gasoline has solid substances in it and they will ultimately clog the filter and impair its efficiency if not removed.

Carry your oldest tire in the spare rack—but be sure that it is not too old for reliable service when it is needed.

When in trouble call Clinton 320-W.

SHORT AND CHIC

Couture showings of children's clothes have been one of the surprises of the late Paris season. Not content to remodel Mother's silhouette, the designers have decreed that even baby daughter's little figure must change. The frock above graphically illustrates how little girls will now wear skirts—very short skirts, it is admitted, and attached at belts that are very close cousins to the bottom of the hems, but skirts just the same. So here we have a brief skirt pleated at the sides, attached to a bodice smartly trimmed by contrasting bands and buttons.
Excella Pattern No. 2968. Sizes 2, 4 and 6 years, 20 cents.
