MRS. LAURA T. STEVES

Mrs. Laura Trowbridge Steves, 67, died October 20, 1950, at the home of her sister-in-law Mrs. Clinton Trowbridge, where she made her home since the death of her husband.

She was born January 17, 1883, in the Town of Kirkland, a daughter of William and Catherine Palmer Trowbridge. She was educated in a local school and attended Mackinac Business School in Onondaga. Later, she employed by General Electric in Schenectady.

She was married to Paul Steves in October, 1939.

Mrs. Steves was a member of the Stone Presbyterian Church and the Hudson Bible Class.

Surviving are a niece, Mrs. Henry Germond, Albany, and several cousins.

The funeral was at 2 p.m. Monday from the home with the Rev. Harold W. Wylie officiating. Burial was in Sunset Hill Cemetery, Clinton.

LESTER D. GALLUP

Lester D. Gallup, 60, Kellogg street, died October 23, 1950, in his home after two years illness.

He was born in Franklin Springs October 9, 1900, a son of the late Edgar and Josephine O'Neill Gallup, and was educated in the Clinton schools. For many years he was a salesman for the DeLaval Separator Company of Foughkeepsie and also for the Uebler Milk Machine Company of Vernon. For the past two years he was a sanitation inspector for the Herkimer Creamery Company of New York.

On September 20, 1924, he married the former Mary Pinck of Lyons Falls. The couple had lived in Clinton for the past 17 years. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church, and a member of the Central New York Milk Sanitation Association.

He is survived by his wife; a son, Howard, Paris; two daughters, Mrs. Frederick Burmaster,
