

The Clinton Courier, CLINTON, N. Y.

HENRY B. SYKES, Editor and Publisher.

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 22, 1921.

LOCAL NEWS AND COMMENT.

Welcome to Hamilton men! Hamilton College reopens tomorrow for the fall term.

The new house which is being erected by W. C. Pryor near Salt Point is approaching completion.

This is the week of the Vernon Fair, the last and the best of the series.

The first of a series of Friday night suppers will be served this week in the Presbyterian Church.

The Stittville Canning Company will pay $500 a ton for pumpkins delivered at their factory in Kirkland.

John O. Jones of Barneveld, who recently purchased the Albert H. Merrill place on the Utica road.

Frank Mitchell of Utica nearly met a fatality in Clark Mills road when he drove his automobile across the Ontario & Western railroad tracks.

At the next regular meeting of Clinton Masonic Lodge, October 10, there will be some special features of interest.

The members of the Skenandoa outing and clam bake at R. C. Brockway's farm on the banks of the Oriskany Saturday afternoon.

On Monday morning William C. Pryor, who lives near Lairdville, discovered that a team of horses had strayed from or been stolen from his pasture.

HON. L. M. MARTIN NOMINATED

For Justice of the Supreme Court by the Fifth District Republican Judicial Convention Held in Syracuse Yesterday—Election is Practically Assured.

Hon. Louis M. Martin of Clinton, veteran legislator and for many years one of the leading Republicans of Central New York, was yesterday unanimously nominated for Justice of the Supreme Court by the Republicans of the Fifth Judicial District at their convention in Syracuse.

Mr. Martin had entertained aspirations for the judicial office previous to the candidacy of Judge Calder, but to avoid the possibility of losing the judgeship to Otsego County through a contest for the nomination he withdrew in favor of the Utica candidate.

Mr. Martin has represented the second Assembly district in the Legislature for the past five years, and previously had served in the same capacity for three years.

Mr. Martin has represented the second Assembly district in the Legislature for the past five years, and previously had served in the same capacity for three years.

Mr. Martin has represented the second Assembly district in the Legislature for the past five years, and previously had served in the same capacity for three years.

Mr. Martin has represented the second Assembly district in the Legislature for the past five years, and previously had served in the same capacity for three years.

Mr. Martin has represented the second Assembly district in the Legislature for the past five years, and previously had served in the same capacity for three years.

A Great Opportunity for Clinton.

That which is free is often undervalued, and ignorance of an opportunity is frequently the reason for its being lost.

There will be a meeting of the Industrial Chapter in the Parish Rooms tomorrow (Thursday) afternoon at 2:30.

There was a fine attendance at the lecture last Sunday evening and much of interest was learned about Chicago.

The choir has made plans for a hallowe'en social.

The chain of social events formed by the monthly suppers will begin the coming Friday with the September supper.

The Baptist Church. Rev. S. B. Leary, Pastor. Owing to the sudden illness of the pastor, he was unable to come to Clinton from his home in Hamilton on Sunday morning.

The Kirkland Church. Rev. Clarence B. Post, Pastor. There was a moderate sized congregation present Sunday, many of our people being afflicted with severe colds and other maladies.

Originally and for many years Mr. Peck was a Republican, and in 1912 became a Progressive. He was well informed on current events and in politics was very independent.

CHURCH ACTIVITIES.

St. James' Church. Rev. Herbert J. Parker, Rector. There will be a meeting of the Industrial Chapter in the Parish Rooms tomorrow (Thursday) afternoon at 2:30.

The teachers of the Church School will meet in the Parish Rooms tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock.

There will be Evening Prayer in the Chapel Friday at 7:30 p. m.

Next Sunday (the eighteenth Sunday after Trinity) there will be a celebration of the Holy Communion at 8 a. m., and Morning Prayer and Sermon at 10:30 a. m.

There was a fine attendance at the lecture last Sunday evening and much of interest was learned about Chicago.

The choir has made plans for a hallowe'en social.

The chain of social events formed by the monthly suppers will begin the coming Friday with the September supper.

The Baptist Church. Rev. S. B. Leary, Pastor. Owing to the sudden illness of the pastor, he was unable to come to Clinton from his home in Hamilton on Sunday morning.

The Kirkland Church. Rev. Clarence B. Post, Pastor. There was a moderate sized congregation present Sunday, many of our people being afflicted with severe colds and other maladies.

Originally and for many years Mr. Peck was a Republican, and in 1912 became a Progressive. He was well informed on current events and in politics was very independent.

There were doing things and by profit by any improvements in methods which he noted.

Mr. Peck was a quiet, unassuming man, never given to pushing himself forward or seeking prominence in any way.

He was honest as the day is long and upright in all his dealings.

He was a member of the Central New York Farmers' Club and at times took an active part in its affairs.

He attended the Congregational Church and was for more than 15 years its treasurer and also for many years a member of its board of trustees.

In 1903 he married Miss Florence Hart, daughter of the late O. J. Hart of Deansboro, who survives.

Two children died in infancy.

Mr. Peck was a quiet, unassuming man, never given to pushing himself forward or seeking prominence in any way.

He was honest as the day is long and upright in all his dealings.

He was a member of the Central New York Farmers' Club and at times took an active part in its affairs.

He attended the Congregational Church and was for more than 15 years its treasurer and also for many years a member of its board of trustees.

In 1903 he married Miss Florence Hart, daughter of the late O. J. Hart of Deansboro, who survives.

Two children died in infancy.

Mr. Peck was a quiet, unassuming man, never given to pushing himself forward or seeking prominence in any way.

He was honest as the day is long and upright in all his dealings.

He was a member of the Central New York Farmers' Club and at times took an active part in its affairs.

The Public Health Association.

Although the Community Nurse, Miss Crockett, has been actively at work for more than two weeks and many of our people have already had cause to thank her kindly and expert ministrations, it has proved impossible thus far for a variety of reasons to call the meeting already spoken of in these columns to organize the Public Health Association, which is to cooperate with and support her work.

This meeting, it is now announced, will be held next week Wednesday evening, September 22, in the Kirkland Town Library.

There will be Evening Prayer in the Chapel Friday at 7:30 p. m.

Next Sunday (the eighteenth Sunday after Trinity) there will be a celebration of the Holy Communion at 8 a. m., and Morning Prayer and Sermon at 10:30 a. m.

There was a fine attendance at the lecture last Sunday evening and much of interest was learned about Chicago.

The choir has made plans for a hallowe'en social.

The chain of social events formed by the monthly suppers will begin the coming Friday with the September supper.

The Baptist Church. Rev. S. B. Leary, Pastor. Owing to the sudden illness of the pastor, he was unable to come to Clinton from his home in Hamilton on Sunday morning.

The Kirkland Church. Rev. Clarence B. Post, Pastor. There was a moderate sized congregation present Sunday, many of our people being afflicted with severe colds and other maladies.

Originally and for many years Mr. Peck was a Republican, and in 1912 became a Progressive. He was well informed on current events and in politics was very independent.

There were doing things and by profit by any improvements in methods which he noted.

Mr. Peck was a quiet, unassuming man, never given to pushing himself forward or seeking prominence in any way.

He was honest as the day is long and upright in all his dealings.

He was a member of the Central New York Farmers' Club and at times took an active part in its affairs.

He attended the Congregational Church and was for more than 15 years its treasurer and also for many years a member of its board of trustees.

In 1903 he married Miss Florence Hart, daughter of the late O. J. Hart of Deansboro, who survives.

Two children died in infancy.

Mr. Peck was a quiet, unassuming man, never given to pushing himself forward or seeking prominence in any way.

He was honest as the day is long and upright in all his dealings.

He was a member of the Central New York Farmers' Club and at times took an active part in its affairs.

He attended the Congregational Church and was for more than 15 years its treasurer and also for many years a member of its board of trustees.

In 1903 he married Miss Florence Hart, daughter of the late O. J. Hart of Deansboro, who survives.

Two children died in infancy.

Mr. Peck was a quiet, unassuming man, never given to pushing himself forward or seeking prominence in any way.

He was honest as the day is long and upright in all his dealings.

He was a member of the Central New York Farmers' Club and at times took an active part in its affairs.

Clinton Bride Takes Soldier Husband.

The marriage of Miss Jane Griffiths Williams, daughter of Mrs. Jane G. Williams of Ann Arbor, Mich., formerly of Clinton, and Carl Henry Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Smith of Bay City, Mich., took place last Thursday evening at the Hall House, the home of Mrs. Henry Wallace Calkins, Ann Arbor.

The bride was attended by Miss Esther Leone Calkins, a student at the University of Michigan, and the best man was Paul Wilson of Detroit, a classmate and fraternity brother of the groom.

Mrs. Smith has been active in social work for the past few years. She received her training in this field in Atlanta, Ga., and has studied special courses in welfare work in the University of Michigan.

The wedding is the result of a war romance which began three years ago when the bride, who was at the time with the American Red Cross at Washington, D. C., met the groom, who was convalescing at the Walter Reed Hospital from wounds received while with the ambulance service of the American Expeditionary Forces.

Mr. Smith enlisted in 1916 and he saw service on the Mexican border before he was transferred overseas. His military career was a brilliant one. He was decorated with the cross of the Legion of Honor by the French government.

After the war Mr. Smith returned to Ann Arbor to complete his law studies in the University of Michigan, where he received high honors, having been awarded the Grey Memorial prize in public speaking. Mr. Smith is a member of the Delta Theta Phi law fraternity.

After October 1 Mr. and Mrs. Smith will be at their home at 310 North Thayer street, Ann Arbor, Mich.

Death of Former Resident of Clinton. The Des Moines (Ia.) Capital of Sept. 10 published the following notice of the death of a lady who was a native of this town and well known to many of our older townspeople:

Mary A. Hills, widow of Luther C. Hills, and mother of Myrtle B. Hills of this city, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. E. Robinson of Caldwell, Idaho, Sept. 8, 1921, at 6:30 p. m. after a long illness.

Mrs. Hills was born near Clinton, N. Y., Sept. 23, 1840, and at the time of her death was about eighty years old. She was married to Luther C. Hills May 18, 1869. The family moved West and settled at Manchester, Ia., in March, 1883. They came to Des Moines to reside in the spring of 1901. This has been her home since then.

A daughter, Dora C. Hills, died at Des Moines in 1904 and the husband, Luther C. Hills, died in 1917.

The funeral services will be held from the First Presbyterian Church at Manchester, Ia., Tuesday morning, Sept. 13, at 10 o'clock.

The funeral services will be held from the First Presbyterian Church at Manchester, Ia., Tuesday morning, Sept. 13, at 10 o'clock.

The funeral services will be held from the First Presbyterian Church at Manchester, Ia., Tuesday morning, Sept. 13, at 10 o'clock.

The funeral services will be held from the First Presbyterian Church at Manchester, Ia., Tuesday morning, Sept. 13, at 10 o'clock.

The funeral services will be held from the First Presbyterian Church at Manchester, Ia., Tuesday morning, Sept. 13, at 10 o'clock.

The funeral services will be held from the First Presbyterian Church at Manchester, Ia., Tuesday morning, Sept. 13, at 10 o'clock.

The funeral services will be held from the First Presbyterian Church at Manchester, Ia., Tuesday morning, Sept. 13, at 10 o'clock.

The funeral services will be held from the First Presbyterian Church at Manchester, Ia., Tuesday morning, Sept. 13, at 10 o'clock.

The funeral services will be held from the First Presbyterian Church at Manchester, Ia., Tuesday morning, Sept. 13, at 10 o'clock.

The funeral services will be held from the First Presbyterian Church at Manchester, Ia., Tuesday morning, Sept. 13, at 10 o'clock.

The funeral services will be held from the First Presbyterian Church at Manchester, Ia., Tuesday morning, Sept. 13, at 10 o'clock.

The funeral services will be held from the First Presbyterian Church at Manchester, Ia., Tuesday morning, Sept. 13, at 10 o'clock.

The funeral services will be held from the First Presbyterian Church at Manchester, Ia., Tuesday morning, Sept. 13, at 10 o'clock.

The funeral services will be held from the First Presbyterian Church at Manchester, Ia., Tuesday morning, Sept. 13, at 10 o'clock.

The funeral services will be held from the First Presbyterian Church at Manchester, Ia., Tuesday morning, Sept. 13, at 10 o'clock.

HOMESPUN YARN.

Tossing dice with typhoid fever is drinking from any old water supply when on a picnic.

Georgian fall weather is meant to be enjoyed. Spend all the time outdoors that you can.

Don't think of system as "red tape." It makes housework as well as office work easier.

Fall house-cleaning has fewer terrors for the woman who has even some of the modern conveniences.

Aunt Ada's Asioms: Don't punish me day a fault that is condoned the next; even a baby recognizes injustice and inconsistency.

Nothing but well sweetened cold tea is what one woman brushes over her black silk umbrella when it begins to look a little rusty.

Tin cans in the backyard are more likely to furnish the source of the mosquitoes that bother you than is the swamp that is further away.

A good, loyal, homey, chatty country newspaper adds immeasurably to country life. Have you a copy of the bulletin which discusses the relations of the newspaper to the rural community? If not, ask for F 153 and the State College at Ithaca will send you one.

PEOPLE OF OUR TOWN

This is the Artist's Idea of the Awful Little God who parks her Chewing Gum on Tables 'n Windows 'n Chairs 'n Doors 'n Trees 'n Automobiles 'n Etceteras. Remember, L'il' God, a Perfect Lady does not Throw her Ceed Chewing Gum under Folk's Shoes. She swallows it!

Advertisement for Ford cars. 'Ford THE UNIVERSAL CAR'. 'Ford Slashes Prices'. 'EFFECTIVE SEPTEMBER 2, 1921'. 'Reduced'. 'As Follows: RUNABOUT, regular, $325.00; RUNABOUT, starter and dem. rims, $420.00; TOURING, regular, $355.00; TOURING, starter and dem. rims, $450.00; COUPE, starter and dem. rims, $595.00; SEDAN, starter and dem. rims, $660.00; TON TRUCK CHASSIS, $445.00'. 'Delivery Will be Made Within 3 or 4 Days in Rotation as Orders Are Received'. 'FIRST COME, FIRST SERVED'. 'PADDOCK'S GARAGE CLINTON, N. Y.'

Advertisement for W. H. Morse. 'For Sale'. '6 New Milch Cows'. 'Also 3 Forward Springers And 20 Yearlings'. 'ONE BLACK TEAM'. '4 and 6 Years Old, Weight 2800'. 'W. H. MORSE'. 'Kirkland Road, Clinton, N. Y.'

Advertisement for Jones & Wilcox. 'MOTORISTS'. 'Bring your cars to the J. & W. Garage, 39 Utica Street, and have us burn out the carbon. It's the most positive way of insuring a clean, smooth running car. JONES & WILCOX'.

Advertisement for Pumpkins. 'PUMPKINS WANTED'. 'THE STITTVILLE CANNING COMPANY WILL PAY $5. PER TON FOR PUMPKINS DELIVERED AT THEIR FACTORY, KIRKLAND, N. Y.'

Advertisement for Lucky Strike Cigarettes. 'Yes it's toasted, of course. To seal in the flavor'. 'LUCKY STRIKE CIGARETTE'.